Rev. Geo. O. Barnes on John Alexander Dowie as Elijah 2nd.

(A private letter to Mrs. Mary Welsh.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10, 1902.—
Dear Sister: You ask me for a clear Scriptural statement as to my belief that John Alexander Dowie is "that Elijah which was for to come."

I am always ready and willing to "give a reason for the hope that is within me;" but the acceptance of those reasons must needs presuppose a certain RECOGNITION on the part of those hearing or reading them; else one "beats the air" in giving even the most logical and Scriptural proof of one's position.

Those who think I have "GONE OFF AFTER DOWIE" for some sentimental reason; or because, like the Athenians of old, I have an inveterate hankering after "some new thing;" will, of course, "lightly esteem" any explanation I may offer. But there are others, who have hastily judged me, perhaps; who, in their heart of hearts, know that I MUST have a good Bible reason for the step I have taken, though they may not see it yet, in Scripture, and who will be glad to have the thing made plain.

There are two classes, as described by Scripture in connection with the 2d coming of our Lord, and both are within the precincts of the church. The one says: "Where is the promise of His coming? since the Fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." The other says: "My Lord delayeth His coming," and act upon that supposition. To both of these, the 2d Advent of our Lord and Savior will be a wild surprise.

Then there are others, wise and foolish VIRGINS, who, "go forth to meet the Bride groom," in good faith, yet in whose destiny—after both fall into guilty slumber and are awakened by a "midnight" cry—there is a wide difference. There was a mysterious SOMETHING that kept five of the 10 outside when the rest went into the bridal festivity, that, always, in the Orient, precede the actual marriage ceremony.

I ask myself, again and again, whether it can be possible, those who were obliged to "go to them that sold and BUY," what they ought to have BROUGHT, are those, who, while loyal to the Bride groom, did not "discern the time;" and failed to welcome the "messenger of the covenant," whom the Master "sent before His face, to prepare the way before Him?" The consequences are bound to be serious. If there is anything significant or TEST-ABLE in that fore-runner's appointment, then failure to recognize him, must have disastrous results.

Remember, that the sad condemnation of the church, in the Savior's day, had its rise in the rejection of John the Baptist's mission, which logically resulted in the rejection of Him, whom he was sent to announce. When I think of that, I would not for a thousand worlds be found among those who fail to hear the "voice"—again lifted up—of "one crying in the wilderness;" "prepare ye the way of the Lord; make His paths straight." So serious is the lesson that the claims of EVERY ONE, to be "that Elijah that was for to come," should be carefully sifted by Scripture, and not lightly rejected.

Since John Alexander Dowie announced himself as such an one, several others have set up claims to that distinction, and we may expect still others to spring up as the "coming of the Lord draweth nigh." These may not all or mostly be hypocrites, for some will be honest; as Scripture clearly distinguishes between those "DECEIVING, and being deceived" in the last days. But we must not forget that COUNTERFEITS always presuppose a TRUE BILL. Whoever then may be THE MAN—THE ONE MAN whom the Savior shall honor by appointing him as "His AVANT COURIER," there CAN BE NO COMING OF THE LORD WITHOUT THE PREVIOUS APPEARANCE OF THIS FORE-RUNNER. However much we may wish to see Him, "whom not having seen, we love;" we may not substitute a sentimental longing for His written word. Elijah first comes. Then the Lord. That is the Scriptural order.

To those who don't read or understand their Bibles, the claim to be "Elijah," appears to be something bordering on the blasphemous, or the grotesque, according as the mind of the critic may be impressed. But the Savior's explanation that "coming in the spirit and power of Elijah" gave John the Baptist his title to the name, settles that question authoritatively; and relieves one of the necessity of going to the "Mahatmas" to study the doctrine of reincarnation, for a far-fetched theory. Indeed, the commonest form of comparative speech we have, covers this ground completely, when we call one "A Napoleon of finance;" another a "Washington of self-denying patriotism;" and yet another a "Wellington in war."

If I read Scripture aright, our present position in the "Dispensation" is this: We are on the threshold of "The great and terrible day of the Lord," that is the proverbial "darkest hour before the day," that all hope for; that dawn of millennial blessedness, when the true King "shall come to His own" again.

To announce that coming, and to gather, as an object lesson, that can not be mistaken, those who shall be "counted worthy to escape the things coming upon the earth," the Lord sends ONE MAN, who, in the spirit's power, smites evil, wherever he finds it; however entrenched by long usage; whenever it may have gained an entrance; in short, makes every "path straight" that he finds "crooked."

His mission is to RESTORE, and he can not right wrongs by sprinkling rose water. His weapon is the word of God—the spirit's sword. He is to wield it in the "piercing of joints" of error; the "marrow" of a false Divinity.

Malachi 11th and 12th chapters cut out his work. I will not stop to refute the folly of those who have confounded the "LORD" with the "MESSENGER of the covenant." But once the discrimination is made, and you have this honored "messenger" "purifying the Sons of Levi." They may WRITE in the purifying furnace; but the dross must be burned away at all costs. He is to rebuke those who "KID GOD." That too will be a sore subject to the robbers; but he can not spare. The "great and terrible day of the Lord" is at hand, and by "any means He must SAVE SOME," and these are to be GATHERED TOGETHER. Hence "Zion" and the "Christian Catholic church"—the solemn "object lesson" of the 20th century. I do not see how the "Restorer" of a disordered and chaotic Christianity can do otherwise; and I do not see how any one can go over what has happened in the short 11 years of the History of the "General Overseer of the C. C. C.," and not be convinced that the Mighty Hand of God is in this wondrous "movement" of "bones" that filled the "valley of vision"—"very many and very dry."

I am perfectly willing to examine, in the light of Scripture the claims of any other "Elijah;" and if the preponderance of evidence is in his favor, to accept him as the genuine "Restorer." If I can find another more fearless in exposing error and attacking, more self-denying in labors abundant, more willing "to spend and be spent" for God, more scriptural in every step he takes, more single-eyed to the glory of God, then I will call him that "Elijah which was for to come" and leave John Alexander Dowie as promptly as I left the Presbyterian church when I found it to be wrong.

At present he stands like King Saul among the host of Israel, "head and shoulders above all who can claim the mission of 'Elijah, the Restorer,'" the "messenger of the covenant," whom God has "endowed with power from on high" and authorized to proclaim the "acceptable year of the Lord" and more—WHAT OUR LORD JESUS CLOSED THE BOOK UPON—the "day of vengeance of our God; the great and terrible day of our Lord"—when grace rejected—Satan will burst upon the scene "having great wrath because he knows he has but a little time;" and then will come that great tribulation, the like of which, earth has never seen, and from which our Saviour warns us to be "counted worthy to escape and to stand before the Son of Man until the indignation be over, past—and Satan shall be 'cast into the Bottomless pit chained and a seal set upon his entrance for 1,000 years.'" From this scene of horror, "Good Lord deliver us."

I would not attempt to build any thing upon it, but I cannot refrain from mentioning in this connection that it is not without significance that this 2d Elijah bears the same name as the 2d Elijah did—"John;" and that Holy Baptism comes to the fore with the 3rd as with the 2nd; all of which, to my mind, has a Divine significance that must strike every thoughtful mind as more than a casual coincidence. I must also notice another point on which I think light ought to be shed. At hand; and where grievous mistakes are liable to be made if care is not taken. I have been taken to task on the subject of PREACHING; and regret has been expressed that the "dear old gospel that gave such joy and light to many" has now to be exchanged for the denunciatory assaults that mark the discoveries of "Elijah the Restorer." To all such regrets, I have but one answer to make. I preach EXACTLY as I always have preached. Not at all different. I do not forget that "Elijah's" mission is HIS, NOT MINE. I am not "called of God" to run a tilt against Rome, Masonry, pork, tobacco, etc. That is Elijah's work, who came upon this chaotic confusion in the church of God to smite the wrong and right it. "TO EVERY MAN HIS WORK" is the apportionment of the varied talents. That is J. A. D.'s work. Mine is mine. May I be as true to God in it, as he is in his.

If ever, mortal man had the courage of his convictions, "John the Baptist No. 2" has.

I admire his downright SLAM of the "word of the spirit" greatly. It is his gift and calling. I would simply be ridiculous in attempting an imitation of it; so will all be, who escape themselves in his armor and try to wield his sword. It will be the almost irresistible temptation of small men, but they will sooner or later find that no man undertakes such a work, save the one who is "called of God."

May I add a word that personally affects the writer? It grieves me much to be misjudged by those I once delighted to think my friends, but who have without cause become, if not enemies, among those who "turn the cold shoulder." I do not add these closing lines so much on account of my personal sorrow and sense of injustice, as I do for the sake of those, with whom it will be a very serious matter in a coming day, if I am right and they are wrong. I know that many have condemned me for "GOING OFF AFTER DOWIE," as they honestly put it, without examination or proof of wrong. That is UNWISE. If I, untamed and untaught in LAW, should venture an off hand opinion on a knotty point of jurisprudence, that sets aside the judgment of one versed in legal lore, would you not regard me with pity or contempt, according to your feeling toward me personally, were deep or shallow?

Now my dear old friend—turned to something like an enemy—let me ask you, if it is fair, without an adequate knowledge of Scripture, to judge off hand, the action of one, who, whatever his shortcomings, has made the Bible a living study, and whose action has lost him hosts of friends never to be regained this side of Heaven? I leave this question on your heart of love to be answered for the sake of "Auld lang Syne" if not for Jesus' sake.

Your old truth, "BRO BARNES,"
P. S. I subjoin texts of Scripture to be examined, if you choose to study the Bible on the subject. From what is written above you can easily adjust them—"comparing Scripture for Scripture."

2 Kings, 1:8 and Matthew, 3:4. Malachi, chapters 4 and 5; Mat. 11:14 and 16:14 and 17:11. Mark 9:11, Luke 1:17 and 9:8, 19. John 1:21 with references.

HUSTONVILLE.

E. C. Moore, of Liberty, has accepted a position with George D. Weatherford.

George E. Afford purchased at the Farris & Denny sale a nice gelding for $125.

Howard Camnitz will enter Centre College at an early date. He has also been engaged to pitch for the C. C. team.

G. Lloyd Johnson was in our city Sunday the guest of Howard Camnitz. G. A. Dowdille was at home Sunday.

Mr. Higgins Kelly, aged 81 years, stepfather of Mrs. Sallie Shipman, of this place, was interred in the McCormack Cemetery last Wednesday.

J. G. Weatherford is with his family at Milldale. Miss Celia Crooke, of Louisville, is the guest of Miss Edna Baughman. Miss Mary Carpenter accompanied the Misses Woods to Danville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Riffe have returned to their home in Lancaster. Charles W. Adams and wife have gone to housekeeping in the new property on West Main Street recently built by W. C. Greening.

There is a move on foot and a petition going the rounds for signatures petitioning the great philanthropist, Andrew Carnegie, to donate $5,000 or $10,000 to found a college here. J. W. Hocker and Dr. El Alcorn are at the head of the venture.

"The way of it" has been so frequently explained to Mr. James P. Goode for the past two weeks that his many friends have but few opportunities to see him and hear his voice, as not a word has been uttered by him and what time he does not spend at home he employs reading the advertisements in the Cincinnati Enquirer and he has transferred his produce business to Weatherford & Myers.

BILIOUS COLIC.

H. Seever, a carpenter and builder of Kenton, Tenn., when suffering intensely from an attack of bilious colic, sent to a nearby drug store for something to relieve him. The druggist sent him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, three doses of which effected a permanent cure. This is the only remedy that can be depended upon in the most severe cases of colic and cholera morbus. Most druggists know this and recommend it when such a medicine is called for. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

At Amite City, La., Willis Cooper killed William Perry and Mrs. Faraba Russell, an aged woman, who was an innocent bystander. He was removed to New Orleans to prevent lynching.

LANCASTER.

Rufus Moss is quite ill at his home in this city. Col. J. W. Miller is suffering from an attack of lumbago. Mrs. Thomas Wall is improving, after a month's illness.

The Endeavor Society of the Christian church will give a "book social" in the Sunday school room Friday evening, Feb. 21. Each guest is expected to contribute a book from some standard author.

W. R. Marre, of Knoxville, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Margaret Marre. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Galt are returned from a visit to Danville relatives. Mr. Spurgeon Sympeon, wife and little son, James McDowell, of Middleboro, are visiting J. K. Sympon and wife.

W. B. Burton sold a pair of mules to R. H. Beazley for $165. Jeff Dunn sold a pair of same to W. Walker for $200. T. S. Elkin bought some butcher cattle from James White at $3, also some of Jack Bourne at $10, some of Luther Ray at $10 and butcher stuff of D. Guley at $5.

Mr. Hansbury West has been very ill this week. Tuesday night he was believed to be in a dying condition, but notwithstanding his age he has rallied and is somewhat better. Mr. John Anderson was out for the first time Wednesday after a confinement of about two months, caused by a fall from his barn loft.

George T. Higginbotham has been appointed administrator of his brother's estate, the late J. M. Higginbotham, and the large stock of hardware will be closed out at once at cost. The deceased left no will. He was the owner of three large farms containing about 800 acres. W. McClelland Johnston has been employed to wind up the estate.

Rev. C. M. Chumley, of Hanover county, Va., who will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday, comes with the prospect of receiving a call from that membership. He brings with him the best recommendations, both as to ministerial and intellectual qualifications. He was highly commended to this pastorate by Rev. McClelland, of Point Lick and the ex-governor of Virginia.

Lancaster continues prominent in most matters affecting Kentucky's portion of this mundane sphere. Of the committee appointed recently by Gov. Beckham to visit the D. D. Institute at Danville, three of the members were at sometime residents of this town.

Capt. E. W. Lillard was for years a druggist in this city; Wm. J. Price, who is a native of this place and spent his early childhood here, a young man of exceptional ability, of whose nativity any city might be proud, and T. B. Robinson, a present resident of this town.

Judge Brown has been quite sick for a week. Harry Anderson will entertain the Junior Set this evening. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Frisbie have moved to their handsome new home on Water Street. Mrs. Crawford, of Indian Territory, has been visiting her brother, Senator Farris. Miss Amy Davidson is at home again after a visit to Richmond relatives. Miss Fannie Doty, daughter of County Clerk Doty, will give a St. Valentine's party this evening.

T. B. Long, proprietor of the Hotel Garrard, is in Nashville on a business trip. Walker White, of Knoxville, has been visiting J. J. Walker and family. W. G. Anderson received a telegram Wednesday telling of the death of his nephew, Sterling McCann of Lexington. Mrs. John Pollard, of Washington, is the guest of Garrard county relatives. Misses Alice Walker and Lizzie Hudson have returned from a visit to Misses Beazley, of Lincoln county. Miss Isabel Walker, daughter of Mr. Arch Walker, graduated a few days ago from the Louisville Training School for Nurses. Miss Walker has filled a position in one of the hospitals there for two years or more and expresses herself as much pleased with her chosen profession.

CHURCH MATTERS.

J. A. Johnson, of Jeffersonville, committed suicide because of a scold at his joining the church.

The report of the building committee shows that the congregation will take possession of the new Baptist church at Danville free from debt, the sum of about $6,000, which remained at the time the church was completed having been liquidated by subscriptions.

LAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy—Mrs. J. A. Moore, North Star, Mich. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

The schooner burned off Cape May Monday night was the Mary Graham. The vessel was caught in the ice and wrecked and the captain set it on fire. A passing ship saved the crew.

ST. VALENTINE was a bishop of rare virtues, one who stood for saintliness rather than for sentiment, and it is a little hard on him that he should be held responsible for so much modern sentimentality and effiteness as occurs about this time of the year in his name. For anyone who has a grudge against a man or wishes to show scorn for some self-elected spinster, may express his feelings in memory of the beheaded bishop, and every written swain invokes his name when he pours out his love-letters on lace paper. The edict has gone forth against the comic valentine, but the sentimental one is here to stay. Yet the modern valentine frequently has substance as well as sentiment; it may take the form of a volume of love poetry, and if it bears the somewhat hackneyed assurance that violets are blue and sugar is sweet it may emphasize these statements by accompanying bunches of the real flower and boxes of genuine confectionery. It is perhaps just as well that there be set aside a day when bottled up sentiment may have a legitimate outlet, and if this sentiment should be expressed in real poetry instead of the execrable twaddle which is usually to be found beneath the gilded paper, good literature might thus be disseminated and a belated justice done to the poor beheaded bishop whose martyrdom ought not to extend beyond his death.

THE Louisville Times very truthfully says that the fact that Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, and his party of invited guests are coming through Kentucky en route to Havana, is sufficient evidence that Fugitive Taylor will not be a member of the party. Durbin don't need the fugitive on such trips any way. Taylor is giving him enough trouble at home.

LEXINGTON did herself proud in entertaining the Legislators and those of them who made speeches at the elegant banquet, promised everything the three institutions there wanted. Appropriations are asked for State College, Eastern Kentucky Asylum and the Houses of Reform and it is to be hoped that they will receive the amount needed.

THE House at Frankfort practically killed the Capital removal project by adopting the Barton substitute for the Parker bill. The substitute provides that when the question of removal is submitted to the people Louisville, Lexington and Frankfort be voted on. This would likely prevent any one of the three getting the necessary majority.

AT Owingsville W. J. Shroat and Charles Stone, republicans, were held to answer in bonds of $500 each for interfering with voters at the November election. The proof showed that the fellows got five democrats drunk and locked them in a room all day to keep them from voting.

NINETY FOUR years ago Wednesday, Abraham Lincoln was born near Hodgenville, Ky., and only a few months earlier Jefferson Davis was born at Fairview, Todd county—the places of their birth being separated by a distance of less than 75 miles.

THE new navy has cost the United States $99,803,925 for construction and $9,313,235 for repairs on completed vessels. The army, navy and pension payments are doubtless the largest of any other nation, with double the men and ships.

A BILL has been offered in the House to increase the pension of Hiram Crank, the last surviving pensioner of 1812. As the old fellow is 103 years old, Congress had better get a move on itself or Crank will not live to enjoy the increase.

THE assassination sympathizers of Ohio, or rather the league of republican clubs of that State, in session at Springfield, adopted resolutions expressing sympathy for Caleb Powers, and calling for contributions in his behalf.

ACCORDING to a policy just adopted by the postal department, fourth-class postmasters, now numbering over 70,000, are not to be removed except for cause. This will rob members of Congress of their chief item of "patronage."

IN speaking of Clarence E. Woods for Senator McCreary's private secretary, the Central Record says: "It would be hard to find one better fitted for the place or one who would give it more faithful attention."

POLITICAL.

The House passed the Oleomargarine bill. Louisville will banquet the legislators on the 21st. The new River and Harbor bill will carry about $60,000,000.

With an amendment striking out the emergency clause, the House at Frankfort passed the bill repealing the McCulloch Tobacco law.

The State Senate passed the Allen bill appropriating $20,000 annually for the maintenance of the State Guard, an increase of $13,000.

Jonathan Lloyd, who came from Richmond, Va., to see his daughter at Owingsville, who he had not seen for 50 years, died in a few hours after his arrival.

The postoffice appropriation bill, which has been practically completed, carries an increase of over $14,000,000 over the current appropriation. A total of $7,520,000 is allowed for rural free delivery.

The Senate has concurred in the House amendment to reopen the State war claims, and Representative Smith has notified Gov. Beckham to send a representative to Washington to prepare Kentucky's claim.

The fight for the postoffices at Winchester, Lebanon and Mt. Sterling are still on with the chances favoring the retention of the incumbents. The nomination of Postmaster Fisher, of Paducah, is still hung up in the Senate.

DANVILLE AND VICINITY.

Dr. W. J. McKnight, formerly pastor of the 2d Presbyterian church here, is dead in Washington.

"Railroad Jack," a musical farce comedy, will be presented at the opera house here next week.

Heber McGrath, barber at Duncan's, has hit on a method to prevent the hair from falling out. It is simply this: "Have your hair cut four successive times on the first Friday of the light of the moon."

The dedication of the Baptist church which was begun last Sunday will be concluded tonight. The sum of $5,800 was raised at the close of services Sunday, $900 of the amount being contributed by Mr. M. J. Farris.

Miss Lettie Cowan Craig, daughter of Mr. J. J. Craig, was married Tuesday morning to Rev. M. Marshall Allen, of Ishpeming, Mich. They left on the afternoon fast train for the groom's home, where he has charge of a prosperous Presbyterian church. Miss Craig was one of the most popular ladies of the older set in Boyle county. The best wishes of many admiring friends go with the happy couple.

E. B. Sweeney, of Junction City, has filed suit in the Boyle circuit court for $10,000 damages against the Evening Post of Louisville, for the publication of an article pertaining to a transaction with Hardin Sutherland, of Casey county, which resulted in a series of misunderstandings. The article published in the Evening Post was a rebuke of a similar one which appeared in the Courier Journal and Louisville Times.

Mrs. T. L. Harvey, of this city, had a narrow escape from serious injury late Wednesday afternoon. She was seated in front of an open grate reading, when a flying spark encountered a celluloid comb in her hair which ignited with a flash. Her hair was nearly all burned off and her clothing caught. Her presence of mind prompted her to rush to a water barrel and pour it over her head. The lady's hands and neck were painfully burned.

Four miles West of Hustonville, a short distance from the point where the three counties of Casey, Lincoln and Boyle come together, resides a remarkable family of five generations. The oldest member is Mrs. James Ellis, who bears with remarkable grace her four score years and ten. In the same old fashioned house live also her daughter, grand-daughter, great-grandson and great-great-grandson whose names respectively are Mesdames Cyrena Hill and Amanda Reed; Mr. David Woodson Reed and Master Willie Reed. Mrs. Ellis is the mother of 16 children, 14 of whom are living and have large families. She has 91 grand children, 92 great grand children and two great great grand children. Only 13 out of the entire aggregation are dead and she now has a bunch of 204 to call her blessed. She can even at her advanced age do more work in a day than a half dozen ordinary women and during the past 10 years has missed but three meetings at her church at Concord, where she walks a distance of two miles and thinks nothing of it. She clings to the colonial customs of cooking and dressing, and throughout her long career has exemplified the old saying, early to bed, early to rise, etc. She frequently rides horseback to Danville to visit her daughter, Mrs. George Mills, her grand-daughter, Mrs. W. H. Gabberry, and grandson, Mr. Alfred Coulter. The latter is a man of powerful stature, standing six feet five. Messrs Gabberry and Coulter recently moved to Danville, while Mr. Mills has been a resident of the city for several years.

THOSE wishing to enter the old fiddlers' contest to be held at Danville Opera House on the evening of Feb. 25th, address at once Mrs. Wm. Warren, Danville, Ky.

WM. HAMILTON, the jeweler, who made a small fortune here, has opened a jewelry store at 29 W. Main, Lexington, and is enjoying a good trade. It didn't take him and his wife long to get enough of Canada, where they went with a view to locating.

THE Danville News says that a son of D. W. Dunn, while engaged in cutting stalks on the farm of J. S. Gode, near Hustonville, found what proved to be the remains of a carrier pigeon. Around the right leg of the bird was a small aluminum band on which was engraved "5-C. S. A.-1901."

BOUGHT at DANVILLE—Messrs. G. S. Watts, of this place, and F. Kinley Tribble, now of Shelby, have bought of Holmes & Bright, of Danville, their stock of groceries, etc., and will take possession soon. Both the gentlemen are "all right" and we cheerfully commend them to the good people of Danville and Boyle county.

A JOKE on W. A. Pettus. Mrs. G. T. Timberlake writes as follows from Milledgeville: "Mr. Pettus was mistaken about killing the wild geese. Having just moved into the neighborhood he was not onto the ways of West End people and things. One of my geese strayed over on his place and was shot by him. He will have to find some other sign to go by for his weather prognostications."

THE old fiddlers' contest at Turnersville Tuesday night was well attended and it proved a most enjoyable entertainment. Carter Bros., the managers, did everything in their power to make everybody have a good time and right well they succeeded. There were 20 contestants, and Messrs. Will Tuttle, John H. Riffe and Richards had a hard time deciding which of them was entitled to the first prize, a fine violin. After considerable trouble they gave it to V. A. Lewis, of Parkville, and the second prize, also a fiddle, to William Cooley, of Stanford. The promoters did well with their enterprise and it is more than probable that they will hold a contest at Liberty in the near future. The Richards boys' portion of the entertainment was also highly pleasing.

PLEASANT OCCASION.—Miss Abbie Lutes and brother, Mr. Charles Lutes, entertained at their pretty country home Wednesday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Caille Abner, of Beattyville. Games were enjoyed, Misses Maggie and Ida King furnished some excellent instrumental music and at the proper hour a delightful lunch was served. Following is a list of those present: Misses Dora and Lula Hopkins, Maud Fleet, Willie Wigham, Maggie and Ida King, Lola Fisher, Amelia Hubbard, Katherine Wilcher, Ada May Jennings, Erma and Alice White Messers. Arch and Allie Bishop, Wesley Hughes, William McAllister, Tom and Henry King, J. Lee Murphy, Charles Nunneley, Isaac and Will Tuttle, Harry Hill, Walter VanArsdale, William White, Arnold Brothers, of Danville, Henry Bridgewater, Page Woolford, Att and Bob Myers, Elmer Cooper, Ed Hughes, Matt Myers, Ed and Bob Hubbard, Lewis Vachook, Wes. and Hugh Bailey, Ester Carter, John Hubbard.

BLOODY BATTLE IN BELL.—In a desperate fight at the "Quarter House" near Middleboro, where a half hundred or so people have been killed in the last decade, Charley Cecil and Jno. Doyle, of a sheriff's posse were killed, and Charley Drye, Marsh Wilson, Perry Watson, Frank Johnson, Mike Welch, Jim Prader and a man named Hopper, members of Lee Turner's so-called army, also bit the dust and the disreputable "Quarter House" was reduced to ashes. The sheriff's posse went to the house to demand the surrender of Lee Turner, for stealing some mules from Gilles Colson and when Deputy Sheriff Cecil knocked at the door he was shot from the upper story of the building. A desperate battle then began over Cecil's body. The attacking party surrounded Turner's fort, with the exception of the Southwestern side, and fired into the place from rocks and trees on the mountain side. The mountaineers stood at the windows until the last. Just before the house fell, some tried to escape, but their retreat was cut off. After the house caught fire the flames spread to the stockade built of thick oak planks 40 feet high, by which Turner's rendezvous was surrounded, and it was burned. Turner denied that he was in his stockade. He has called together 50 or more mountaineers, who will not let any one go to the "Quarter House."

MR. BEN BOONE's house near Goshen caught fire while Mr. Wm. Holtzclaw was being buried yesterday, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

At a meeting of the trustees of Rowland Wednesday night Thomas J. Smith was elected chairman, J. W. Kelley, clerk, and G. W. Goodrich, treasurer. A marshal will be elected next meeting night.

DECLARED INSANE.—Mrs. Julia Asberry, of the Milledgeville section, was pronounced insane in Judge Halley's court yesterday and she was taken to Lakeside Asylum by ex-Sheriff S. M. Owens and Deputy C. B. Owens today.

THE splendid letters from Danville which appear in this paper are from the pen of Mr. Owen McIntyre, of the Advocate, one of the brightest and best young newspaper men in the State. Like thousands of our readers we hope he will continue the good work in giving us the latest happenings in "Danville and Vicinity."

INGENIOUS MERCHANTS.—James F. Cummins, of the firm of Cummins & McClary, has made a show case, which is lighted by acetylene gas and which is as useful as it is ornamental. Geo. H. Farrie, senior member of his firm, is the inventor and manufacturer of a horse collar rack, which is the best thing for showing off collars we have seen.

HOLTZCLAW.—William Holtzclaw, familiarly known as "Finger Bill," to distinguish him from several other William Holtzclaws, died at his home on the Crab Orchard pike Wednesday of pneumonia and was buried at Goshen Thursday after services at his late home by Rev. W. E. Arnold. A wife and several grown children survive him. He professed Christianity a few years ago and had been an excellent citizen.

TO THE PEN.—A Williamsburg dispatch says that Sheriff J. P. Ellison left for Frankfort with the following prisoners, who had been convicted at the recent term of the Whitley circuit court: Giles Carroll, life, for murder; W. G. Holland, life, for murder; John Yonts, four years, malicious shooting; Kennedy, one year, horse stealing; and James Lay, one year, malicious cutting. Holland is well known in this and Casey counties, he having lived years at Yosemite, where he was a good citizen.

CONTRACTED.—At a meeting of the City Council Tuesday night the board adopted the report recommended by Councilmen Cleo Reynolds and J. M. Alverson and Mayor A. B. Florence, who were appointed to contract with the Stauffer Water, Light & Ice Co., for water and light service this year. The company is to replace the 12 old arcs and 17 incandescents with the latest pattern, "Enclosed" 1,200 candle-power arcs, 25 candle-power incandescents, 43 fire hydrants and furnish an all-night light service, for $3,000. The lights are to be ready for service within 30 days. The following restrictions were placed upon the company: In case a light fails to perform its functions it will be the duty of the city marshal to notify the secretary and treasurer of the company, and if not attended to within an hour of such notification, a penalty of $1 per light a night will be assessed against the company; all fire hydrants have to be drained monthly, except in unreasonable weather, for failure of same, a penalty of $1 is to be taxed against the company. If the city desires any additional arcs or incandescents put in they are to be at the rate of $60 and $15, respectively, per year. The city reserves the right to change the location of any of the lights or any to be added. The company says it proposes to make Stanford the best lighted city in the State, and here's hoping their efforts will not be in vain. The City Council is to be congratulated upon giving the people a better and all-night light service.

These are the questions hundreds of people have asked about

THE FAIR DRY GOODS COMPANY.

We have bought the stock of Severance & Sons and moved it to the Portman storeroom next door to old Louisville Store stand, opposite Myers House, and hope to have the same liberal patronage we have before enjoyed from our Lincoln county friends. We promise to maintain the same business principles as the old firm, viz: selling first-class merchandise at the very lowest prices consistent with quality. We occupy the first and second floors and will be more conveniently fixed to serve you. On the first floor we will carry a first-class line of Dry Goods, Shoes and Notions. On the second floor Cloaks, ready made skirts and waists, trunks, lace curtains, carpets. Come and see our new gingham, percales, Hamburgs, laces, cottons, etc., for early sewing. Commence right now to trade with us.

MIDDLEBURG.

The health of this community was never better than at the present.
Mrs. McD. Royalty is very ill at this writing, being confined to her bed. The other sick are convalescent.
School at Middleburg Normal College is progressing nicely, a common interest between pupil and teacher being taken.

Considerable interest is being taken in the old fiddlers' contest which is to be held at Keeney's Hall, this place Saturday night.
W. F. Martin, formerly of the 37th Inf., U. S. V., has lately had his pension increased from $8 to $12 a month. Martin received a Mauder wound in August of 1900.

Fred L. Durham, who has been holding down a lucrative position with a Chattanooga railway concern for the past 18 months, is visiting his mother and other relatives here.
Quite a number of our people have had the "moving fever" the past week. M. S. McMullin moved back to Yosemite, W. T. Dye moved to town in the Dye property, Rad McCormick moved to the property in North Middleburg vacated by Mr. Dye. Clell McAninch moved up to the Durham farm on the river, and C. C. Lanham moved to the Faris property near Stanford.

Casey democrats are tickled, and they have a right to be jubilant if the present proposed redistricting bill reported by the redistricting committee is carried through. In our last letter we sent up a wall, as the first proposed report of the committee was to take Casey out of the 18th Senatorial and place it in another with Adair, Russell, Cumberland and Monroe, and a district that no democrat could ever hope to carry. In the last report Casey is to be retained in the 18th, so Casey is to be taken out of the 11th Congressional district and put in the 4th, now represented by Hon. D. H. Smith. Casey will be the only republican county in the Fourth district, which is safely democratic from 5,000 to 6,000. C. C.

KINGSVILLE.

A petition was sent in from here last week favoring the introduction of an anti cigarette bill. If the bill passes we can't help but feel sorry for our cigarette fiends and wonder what substitute they will employ.
J. Brooke Rogers, traveling salesman of Knoxville, was here Tuesday. Mrs. D. M. Creighton is ill of grip. Mrs. B. C. Penabacker went to Erlanger Sunday to attend the funeral of an old friend, Mrs. Quinlan. Mrs. McGuffey, wife of our deputy sheriff, is ill of consumption. D. M. Creighton, whom we reported last week to be suffering from symptoms of gout, has adopted the course of "low living and high thinking" with favorable results.

In granting bail to J. M. McKnight the United States circuit court of appeals completely reverses Judge Evans, saying that his refusal doesn't harmonize with the humane principles of the law. McKnight will give bond again.

$100 REWARD.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one drugged disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. THE Central Kentucky Real Estate Exchange And Title Company.

We offer for sale the following:

No. 1—House and lot in Stanford, Ky. Has five rooms, hall, porch in the rear, a good garden, in a good neighborhood and close to churches and school. This is a good house for a small family. Price, $850.

No. 2—A small farm of 37 acres about 2 1/2 miles from Stanford. House contains four good rooms, back porch and other veranda. A good barn and other outbuildings, all in good repair. Cut in six fields, well fenced; 20 acres in cultivation, one acre in fruit trees, rest in grass. This was bought at a Commissioner's sale at a bargain and can be sold at a bargain. It is close to school and church, and only 2 1/2 miles from Stanford. Price, $33 per acre. Land adjoining sold for $40 and $45 per acre. This is a bargain.

No. 3—House and lot in Stanford. House contains five rooms. A good stable and 5 acres of land well fenced. This is one of the prettiest buildings lots in town; there is room enough in front for two other cottages, or a two-story front could be built to the cottage and be made a beautiful home. This place will be sold cheap as the owner must have money.

No. 4—Two-story frame dwelling, seven rooms, hall and veranda. Good garden, fencing and house in good repair. This place is for sale or rent, price reasonable.

No. 5—House and lot in Stanford. House has three rooms and front porch. A good garden and stable. In good repair. This place will be sold cheap.

No. 6—House and lot in Stanford, Ky. One and one-half story, contains five rooms. A good garden, smoke house and coal house. Price only $300.

No. 8—Small farm of about 80 acres, 2 1/2 miles from Stanford on county road. 25 acres in cultivation, 7 in pasture, 2 good orchards and rest in timber. Two small cottages, good barn and other outbuildings.

We have a buyer for a 250 or 300 acre farm situated from one to three miles from town. Also a buyer for about 100 acres situated from one to four miles from town, with or without improvements.

We will advertise other places later on. We still solicit your farm and town property to sell for you.

Scientific Cough Cure

... Cure

We do not believe that any cough cure can be better than our Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar. It does just what must be done to thoroughly cure a cough. It overcomes congestion and inflammation—it soothes and heals the delicate tissues of the air passages—it promotes expectoration—it cures the cough and finally cures it to stay cured. Relief is almost immediate. It is pleasant to take and economical to use. When you want the best possible cough cure ask for
